

America's #1 SG Consultant FACTS & FEES

What happens before, during, and after your SG Consultant Visit with Student Leader's Butch Oxendine?

1. Sign contracts

You reserve a visit time and date and complete contract.

2. Pre-visit consultation

Through conference calls, e-mails, mail, faxes, and other phone calls, we will learn about your problems and will work on solutions prior to arriving.

3. Research

- In advance of coming to your campus, we will research your institution, learn about your SG, its image, and its history, and will understand what problems you're facing before arriving.
- We will correspond with other key players at your institution, including administrators, the student press, and the leaders of other major campus organizations and groups.

- A week before the visit, we will confirm the agenda.
- The day before the consultant visit, we will confirm the topics and any last-minute ideas to be covered.

4. In-depth consultation

During your consultant visit, we will be at your disposal at any time, day and night, in group meetings or in private sessions. We also will lead workshop sessions, if desired.

5. Formal "Consulting Report" in writing

One week after the consultant visit, we will mail a formal consulting report outlining our recommendations for solutions to problems discussed during the visit. We will offer two hours of phone consultation to expound on the report.

6. Bonus post-visit consultation

After the visit, we will agree to a final hour of consulting time by phone and/or e-mail.
